The Centre des Langues of the Université Bourgogne Europe offers language courses at all levels. Its mission is to promote language learning for all, whether students, staff or the general public.

Description:

Our courses are taught by University teachers who are specialists in their field and/or by native speakers of the language taught.

You have access to self-study software in English and conversation sessions with native tutors in English and other languages.

You can register for a TOEIC certification course and take a TOEIC certification in English.

You have the opportunity to take a Bright certification in German, Spanish, Italian and other languages at the end of the semester.

You have access to many resources, including the Media Library (films, board games, documentaries).

Available at the Centre:

- ✓ Courses with teachers and certification
- ✓ Self-study in English
- ✓ Tutoring
- ✓ Translation and proofreading services
- ✓ Library and media library resources

The Centre des Langues is therefore a place where you can study and practice the most common languages but also discover rarer ones.

OTHER SERVICES

TRANSLATION AND PROOFREADING SERVICES

Translation from French to English and proofreading services (abstracts, articles, scientific papers, etc.). A quote can be established, on request, based on the nature, length and urgency of the task requested: centre.langues.cultures@ube.fr

Intercultural Program for European Credits

For international and French students at the UBE: The program consists of three hours of presence per week over 11 weeks at the Language Centre to accompany users in the learning and practice of your native language. During this period, you will organize a special event to present your culture and/or organize weekly activities and missions at the Centre (to be decided in agreement with the head of the Language Center). You will choose to attend one language class per week (generally 1h30 per week over 10 weeks) leading to a graded exam that will count in the final average for your participation in the program. It is mandatory to have fulfilled your 33 hours of presence at the Centre and to have organized a special cultural event. You must also attend your language courses regularly and take the final exam to obtain your 5 ECTS credits. More information: centre.langues.cultures@ube.fr

CONTINUOUS EDUCATION

The Language Center's courses are open to professionals in continuous education via registration with the University's Continuing Education and Work-study Training Service (SEFCA). See the offers available on the site <https://sefca.ube.fr/>

TRAINING for UNIVERSITY STAFF

The courses are open to University staff, either individually with training support provided by the University's human resources development service (SDRH) and possibly the home service or department, or via the staff training plan organized once a year. Information: Formationspersonnels@ube.fr
