

INTERMEDIATE ENGLISH COURSE

Level B1 of the CEFR

10 sessions of 1h30 per semester

Prerequisites:

Having validated levels A1 and A2
according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

General Objectives :

- Expand vocabulary by working on advanced vocabulary and specific lexical fields.
- Strengthen the basics of English grammar and practice more complex structures.
- Gain fluency in both spoken and written English.
- Develop knowledge of the history and culture of English-speaking countries

Learning Objectives :

- Be able to master the syntax of simple sentences and certain complex structures.
- Use basic vocabulary and enrich it regularly.
- Reading comprehension: be able to understand written texts using daily language (mainly journalistic).
- Written expression : be able to write a coherent text on familiar and creative topics ; be able to describe one's experiences and impressions.
- Listening comprehension: be able to understand the key information from radio or TV broadcasts, and grasp the essential content of a film or TV series.
- Oral expression : be able to take part in a conversation with clear pronunciation, comment on current events, and give one's opinion in a simple but reasoned manner.

Teaching Approach :

Active teaching methods based on real-life situations.

- Listening comprehension practice (audio and video materials) in the language lab.
- Role-playing and written exercises : pair work, individual or pair writing assignments.

Teaching Materials :

Provided by the teacher: audiovisual materials, excerpts from books from various publishers, grammar exercises, glossaries

Assessment :

Test including grammar, vocabulary, and expression questions will be administered to students to assess their progress