

COURSE OF FRENCH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE BEGINNER LEVEL A1 Level of the CEFR

10 sessions of 1h30
per semester

Prerequisites : none

General objectives :

- Understand and use daily expressions and simple phrases aimed at satisfying immediate needs.
- Introduce yourself and others and give basic personal information about your home, possessions and acquaintances.

Learning objectives:

- Learn to interact in simple daily situations : introduce yourself, understand general information including basic facts, describe where you live and people around you, express your intentions, feelings and basic needs, understand and write simple messages.
- Learn basic grammar rules.
- Know the basic vocabulary.
- Improve your pronunciation.

Teaching methods:

- Each course focuses on the four skills : listening comprehension (CO), reading comprehension (CE), speaking (EO) and writing (EE), with particular emphasis on phonetics and phonology, especially at the beginning of the program.
- Homework is planned. Ideas for homework can be sketched out, explained and adapted individually to suit each student's profile.

Teaching materials :

- Les 500 exercices de phonétique, niveau A1-A2, CD audio inclut. Hachette
- Manuels de la série « Progressif » CLE International : phonétique, vocabulaire, communication, grammaire, conjugaison, orthographe, niveau débutant, avec des exercices
- Conversations pratiques à l'oral. Didier
- Grammar sheets
- Sheets containing useful Internet links according to level (i.e. online dictionaries, phonetics, conjugation, dictation, songs, literature: texts and audio books, recorded audio-video extracts, etc.).

Level assessment :

The five skills (CO, EO, EOI, CE, EE) will be regularly assessed.