

COURSE OF FRENCH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE B1 Level of the CEFR

10 sessions of 1h30
per semester

Prerequisites: A2 level

General objectives :

- Understand and use expressions to get by (formally and informally) in frequently encountered situations : travelling, work or training.
- Be able to communicate and discuss - in a simple way - more or less familiar events or experiences.
- Be able to express a wish, a goal or an idea.

Learning objectives :

- Learn to interact in daily situations : have sufficient linguistic skills to express yourself on familiar subjects, be able to react to current events, including speaking in conversations, describe your professional/study environment, master the expression of advice and the flow of ideas in a text and orally.
- Learn more about the basic rules of grammar.
- Know vocabulary for familiar, professional and leisure activities.

Teaching methods :

- Each course focuses on the four skills : listening comprehension (CO), reading comprehension (CE), speaking (EO) and writing (EE), with particular emphasis on oral interaction.
- Homework is planned. Ideas for homework can be sketched out, explained and adapted individually to suit each student's profile.

Teaching materials :

- Manuals : La grammaire des premiers temps, B1-B2 FLE, PUG and Grammaire du français, multi-niveaux A1 à B1, Hachette
- Manuals of « Progressif », CLE International : vocabulaire, communication, grammaire, conjugaison, orthographe, niveau intermédiaire, avec des exercices
- Websites such as : www.lesZexperts.com , wwwTV5monde.com, www.lefrançaisdesaffaires.com
- Sheets containing useful Internet links according to level (i.e. online dictionaries, phonetics, conjugation, dictation, songs, literature: texts and audio books, recorded audio-video extracts, etc.).

Level assessment :

The four skills (CO, EO, CE, EE) are assessed after 2 written TESTS in class and an individual oral presentation.
