

COURSE OF FRENCH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE EXPERT LEVEL C1 Level of the CEFR

10 sessions of 1h30
per semester

Prerequisite : B2 level

General objectives :

The aim of the course is to help students acquire linguistic and civilizational skills through the use of a variety of media that link their pragmatic, linguistic or civilizational knowledge to the tasks at hand.

Learning objectives :

Listening comprehension :

- Medium-length audio documents (4 to 6 minutes) on a variety of topical subjects.
- Broadcast of extracts from news reports.
- Each document is discussed and the vocabulary acquired is specific to the communication situations covered.

Written comprehension :

- Articles taken from the daily press in which the author's opinion is strongly expressed.
- Contemporary literary texts.
 - Work on the vocabulary used in the texts: synonymous research, etc.

Oral expression :

- Discussions on the themes raised by the authentic documents.
- Role-play practice of language structures learnt in lessons.

Written expression :

- Written productions involving the re-use of language structures identified in authentic documents.
- Writing exercises to improve syntax.
- Produce texts based on the expression of personal opinions and the use of logical articulators.

- Grammar :

- Review of simple and compound tenses
- Past tenses
- Prepositions
- The complex sentence
- Circumstantial clauses of time, purpose and cause
- The subjunctive tense
- The particularities of colloquial language

Level assessment:

The five skills (CO, EO, EO, CE, EE) will be assessed in the final session.