

GERMAN COURSE

CONSOLIDATION LEVEL

CEFR Level A2

10 sessions of 1.5
hours per semester

Prerequisite : Have completed level A1 of the CEFR

General objectives :

- Acquire basic grammar skills in the language
- Acquire correct pronunciation
- Be able to understand and conduct a simple conversation
- Be able to understand and write a simple written message

Learning Objectives :

- Acquiring useful expressions for reading travel brochures, booking a trip, writing shopping lists, shopping, taking a tour of the city, writing postcards, creating a joint plan, and expressing your opinion.
- Transmission of cultural knowledge : events in Germany, Austria and Switzerland, knowledge of German literature, famous personalities from the 'DACH' countries (= Deutschland, Austria, Confoederatio Helvetica).

Teaching methods :

Grammar review:

- Das Perfekt, possessive articles (the possessive article in the nominative, accusative and dative cases)
- Local prepositions in the dative and accusative cases (auf, vor, zwischen, über ...)
- The indefinite article, adjective declension, temporal prepositions

Teaching materials :

- Interactive teaching based on real-life situations.
- Listening comprehension training (audio and video materials)
- Oral and written role-playing exercises: individual or pair/group work, creation and staging of dialogues to promote oral expression

The course will be based on the following method:

MENSCHEN A2.1, Deutsch als Fremdsprache, Kursbuch, Hueber 2013
Students may purchase the following items before the start of classes, if they wish :

- Kursbuch A2.1 (manuel)
- Arbeitsbuch A2.1 (cahier d'activités)

Level assessment :

The five skills (CO, EO, EOI, CE, EE) will be regularly assessed...